

Reversible Little Baby Bibs

Perfect for catching a little drool or eating on the go, this little bib is perfect for use on both sides, with soft Cuddle on one side and fun patchwork on the other. Perfect little gifts or to coordinate with a variety of outfits, these bibs are quick to make and fun to use!

Materials:

- Scraps of fabric of varying sizes
- 8" x 11" rectangle Shannon Cuddle
- 1" - 5/8" wide hook and loop tape or snap
- Sewing machine and notions

Notes:

- Read all directions before beginning.
- All seam allowances are 1/4" unless otherwise noted.
- RST=Right Sides Together

1. Create Patchwork:

Using fabric scraps, sew an 8" x 11¹/₂" patchwork rectangle of your choosing.

Patchwork suggestions:

- 4—2 1/2" strips piece horizontally
- 6—2 1/2" strips pieced vertically
- Horizontal or vertical strips of varying widths (as shown).
- 24—2¹/₂" squares
- 1—8" x 6¹/₂" rectangle and 1—8" x 5" rectangle

2. Sew Bib

Using the pattern piece from the last page, cut patchwork portion to bib shape.

Place patchwork bib shape RST with the Cuddle rectangle. It is easier to sew the fabric to the Cuddle if the Cuddle is not trimmed to the bib shape.

Sew patchwork pieces to Cuddle rectangle, RST, leaving a 3" opening along one side.

3. Trim Cuddle:

Using the patchwork as a guide, trim Cuddle to the bib shape. Clip all curves.

4. Turn & Finish:

Turn bib right side out through opening. Gently push out points. Pin opening closed.

Sew 1/8" from edge of bib all the way around, sewing opening closed.

Quilt as desired (1/8" on either side of seam is shown). This will keep the patchwork in place and create a pretty texture on the Cuddle, perfect for using both sides of the bib!

Attach hook and loop tape or snap to the top of bib to finish.
